ADMIRAL'S FLAGSHIP IS STILL AFLOAT

Reports That It Struck a Rock Are Unfounded.

NEWS FROM RUSSIAN CAPITAL

Talk of Ending War Is Out of Question Declares Russian Newspaper—The Czar's Government Must Weigh All Matters of Far Eastern Situation.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 7.—Reports that Vice Admiral Rojesvensky's flagship, the battleship Kniaz Zouvaroff, has struck a rock and sunk, are unfounded.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 7.—Regarding the peace talk abroad, M. Souvorin, editor of the Novoe Vremya, in a signed editorial in that paper today passionately declares that the voice of the nation should give an answer in order that the world might understand once for all Russia's position.

The emperor, he added, should consult with representatives of the land as his predecessors did before the days of John the Terrible. While papers abroad now say that peace could be concluded without dishonor, if peace were made they would declare it disgraceful. What the people want, he, M. Souvorin, possibly cannot affirm, but the idea of ending the war at this juncture is abhorrent to him and he believes to the Russian people. If the inscriptions on the banners of demonstrators and the action of some of the zemstvos in favor of peace represented the voice of the nation, it would mean the collapse of all of Russia's aspirations and farewell to her position in the Far East and her dreams of an open road to the sea and the creation of an yellow peril in Asia, which would threaten civilization and mean Russia's retirement into her Muscovite shell and the disappearance from the stage of this great power. The army, M. Souvorin further says, hold the honor and fate of Russia in its hands. M. Souvorin then reviews sorrowfully the record of bitter humiliations suffered thus far and the chances for the future. In concluding, he declares the government must decide and weigh well the consequences, but the editor insists the people must be united as "disunion, riots and revolution mean the downfall of the fatherland."

The committee of ministers held a second session today under the presidency of M. Witte.

Count Tolstoi's son, Leo, in an article upon Great Britain's constant desire to embarrass Russia, declares Great Britain is preparing her own grave and hastening her own end, if she forces war with Russia, "as the countries of France, Germany and Italy are bound to realize that their interests lie with Russia."

Eighty Officers Accept Parole.

Port Arthur, Jan. 6.—With the third Japanese army via Fusan, Jan. 5.—Only 80 Russian officers have accepted parole.

All the regular Russian troops have marched out of Port Arthur, and will leave for Port Dalny today. Japanese troops entered the city yesterday to keep order. Non-combatants are allowed the option of remaining at Port Arthur.

The Japanese navy is removing the mines and the Japanese hulks at the harbor mouth.

All the forts have been taken over by the Japanese.

News from Tokio.

Tokio, Jan. 7.—When the time came to forward the winter outfit for the army in Manchuria and the commissariat produced hundreds of thousands of fur ear protectors for Japanese and foreigners alike wondered where these things have come from. No one ever had heard of their being made.

It seems that two years ago the plague was raging along the Chinese coast. The Japanese quarantine bureau decided that strenuous efforts must be made to keep the dread disease out of the country. They determined to start a crusade. In all the larger cities bounties were offered for each rat brought in. The small boys found this a great source of revenue, and the competition at once became very keen. For each rodent the huntsman was given a small sum and a lottery ticket. The money he might squander, but the ticket he saved and at the end of the month there was a drawing with prizes varying from $5 to $50.

Rat catching became the regular amusement of the boards of health all over the country were kept busy examining the daily bag. Each animal was duly registered and the place in which is was caught was noted. It was then examined and if any suspicious germs were discovered, the building from which the rat came was immediately raided, all animals hunted down and the place was disinfected. In this manner the plague was kept out of Japan.

The small boys amused themselves and made money, but no one ever stopped to think of what would become of the skins of these millions of rats that had been worrying the board of health. They had not been thrown away. The military authorities had used them to make ear protectors.

The navy department announces that the Japanese naval force at Port Arthur has sunk the following Russian war vessels in that harbor:

Torpedo boats—The Gaidamak and Fusatonik; torpedo boat destroyers, the Jetirny, Sissak and Boevoir.

The armored cruiser Bayan is lying on the south coast of the harbor severely damaged and the gunboat Bobrie is entirely burned as the result of the Japanese shelling.

The Russian battleships sunk at Port Arthur have not as yet been officially inspected. The portions of those destroyed by the Russians at the last moment seem limited above water. As there are no signs of interior explosions, it is hoped that the damage done to them will be repairable.

The docks are partially destroyed and filled in, the gates also being damaged. The great crane is intact and serviceable.

IMPORTANT WITNESS MISSING.

Sensational Developments in Dodge-Morse Case.

New York, Jan. 7.—W. R. Gelshenen, a son of Mrs. William B. Gelshenen, widow of a millionaire banker and a number of servants employed in the Gelshenen mansion, appeared before the grand jury today in connection with the investigation of the Dodge-Morse case.

An attempt was made yesterday to serve a subpoena upon Mrs. Gelshenen for her appearance before the jury which was begun yesterday, and continuing today, was unsuccessful.

Assistant District Attorney Garvie, who is assisting Mr. Rand in presenting the case to the grand jury, said that his officers who have been watching the Gelshenen house, told him that 15 or 20 trunks were taken from the house today marked "S. S. Deutschland," and addressed to "Naples." The Deutschland will sail tomorrow from Hoboken, N. J. Whether Mrs. Gelshenen preceded her baggage to New Jersey and, therefore, is out of the jurisdiction of the New York officers, or is still in this city, is not known at the district attorney's office. Her son, entering the grand jury room today said that his mother was not at home.

Miss Seabury's father calls it black mail.

$40,000 WORTH OF BONDS LOST.

Driver of Baggage Wagon Is Missing and No Clew Is Found.

New York, Jan. 7.—Mrs. W. L. Cunningham, a young woman claiming Chicago as her home, has reported to the police that baggage stolen from her Tuesday last contained $40,000 worth of negotiable bonds, in addition to clothing and jewelry valued at $1,100. She reported the loss of the baggage Wednesday, but made no mention then of any bonds, merely stating that the trunks contained a lot of valuable clothing.

She has been visiting here for some months, and occupied apartments in West Forty-sixth street. Deciding to return to Chicago, she engaged an expressman, but after sending off her luggage suddenly changed her mind about going, and told the express agent to have her property returned. A wagon was sent to the railway station, but failed to return, and several hours later the police picked up the horse and wagon down-town.

No trace has yet been found of the driver. Other goods placed in the driver's care also disappeared.

COMMITTEE WILL INVESTIGATE.

Colorado Gubernatorial Contest Left in Hands of 15 Men.

Denver, Colo., Ja 1.—At a joint caucus of Republican members of legislature which continued until 1 a. m. it was decided to place the gubernatorial contest into the hands of a committee of 15.

This committee will make an investigation in the alleged frauds committed at the election in Denver and report recommending a policy to be pursued. The date set for the submission of this report is Monday, Jan. 9. Fifty-seven Republican legislators attended the caucus and the vote on the proposition to appoint the committee referred to was 48 to 9.

While there was some feeling displayed in the caucus on the part of the opponents of the plan, it is confidently asserted that they will make no further fight against the majority but will acquiesce to whatever report is made by the committee of 15.

WHIPPING WAS FIENDISH.

So Declares Vardaman Anent Convict's Punishment.

Jackson, Miss., Jan 7.—Governor Vardaman returned this afternoon from Rankin penitentiary, where he investigated the whipping of Convict Howell by Sergeant Puckett. The governor, in speaking of the whipping said:

"I investigated the whiping of Convict Howell by ex-Sergeant D. Puckett and a man by the name of Strong.

"The punishment inflicted upon this unfortunate convict was most fiendish and betokens depravity and brutality which would disgrace the character of the most abandoned criminal in the penitentiary."

He has employed counsel to prosecute Puckett in the state courts. Puckett, whose time as sergeant has expired, is very defiant, and says that he does not believe that he will ever be indicted for it, and if he is he is not apprehensive of conviction.

CONFUSION REIGNS AT JOINT SESSION

Two Men Wanted To Preside And Row Follows.

SPEAKER REFUSED TO GIVE WAY

President of Senate Thought He Was Proper Person to Yield the Gavel and Dissolved the Joint Session of the Legislature.

Denver, Colo., Jan. 7.—At a joint this morning the legislature went into joint session. Confusion at once resulted when Lieutenant Governor Haggott, the presiding officer of the senate, took his position beside the speaker to direct the joint session. Mr. Dickson refused to give way.

"The clerk of the house will call"—said Speaker Dickson, with a thump of his gavel.

"The clerk of the senate will call the roll of the senate," said Lieutenant Governor Haggott.

Immediately the two clerks commenced to call the rolls amid great confusion. But few names had been called when Representative Frewen arose.

"Mr. Frewen you are out of order," said the speaker.

"Mr. Frewen, you have the floor," repeated Lieutenant Governor Haggott.

Bang! went the two gavels. The two men stood side by side, behind the speaker's desk, both refusing to give way.

The confusion was so great that no voice could be heard, and although Mr. Frewen continued to address the assembly, his voice was not distinguishable.

A motion to adjourn was made and seconded. It came to a vote, the ayes and noes sounding in about equal volume.

"The ayes have it, and the joint session is dissolved," shouted Lieutenant Governor Haggott.

"The noes have it, and the motion is lost," shouted Speaker Dickson.

Whack! went the Lieutenant Governor's gavel.

"The assembly is dissolved!" he shouted. "The assembly is not dissolved," called the speaker.

"I repeat that the session is ended and the senators will leave the room," said the lieutenant governor, and out filed the senators headed by the lieutenant governor and great confusion.

Many of them did not leave the room, but stood behind the seats of the representatives, watching the proceedings.

Speaker Dickson refused to recognize the passing out of the senate and declared that although the senators had left the room the joint session was still in progress.

COMMISSION HAS GRANTED RATES

Movement Inaugurated by Baird Hardware Co. Two Years Ago

HAS NOW BEEN EFFECTED

Railroad Commissioners, in a Recent Session, Ordered Reduction in Rates Which Will Mean Big Thing for Interior Cities.

The interior cities of Florida which have fought the railroad companies in regard to rates have won their point, and it is a good one, because it gives those cities which desire to conduct a wholesale business an equal advantage with Jacksonville.

In February, 1903, the Baird Hardware Company, realizing what they considered a discrimination in freight rates on certain articles, began the fight, and to them the credit belongs. During that month this firm filed with the Railroad Commission a petition citing the apparent injustice, and requesting that a comparative reduction be made. The Ocala Board of Trade, recognizing the importance of this matter, became a party to the petition at its informal hearing, when the petition was filed for information and reference by order of the commission.

For nearly two years this petition occupied one of the dark pigeon-holes of the commission in Tallahassee, but the Baird Hardware Company, through W. B. Taylor, with a persistent effort did not fail to remind the members of the commission at various intervals of its importance, with the result that it was not allowed to suffer the fate of the dead. An order was finally issued calling a meeting of the commissioners in Jacksonville on December 1, 1904, "to consider the adoption of amendments to Classification No. 1," and affording an opportunity to all railroad companies and common carriers and show cause, if any they had, why the proposed amendment should not be adopted. The amendment referred to was the amendment offered by Mr. Taylor, and it will prove gratifying information that the same was adopted.

Immediately after the organization of the Gainesville Board of Trade, that organization joined the effort, and at the meeting held in Jacksonville at the specified time, Mr. Taylor, representing the Gainesville Board of Trade, and a delegation from the Ocala Board of Trade, were present. Mr. Taylor was the only representative giving in evidence; that submitted by him covered thirteen legal cap pages, typewritten. It had the desired effect, for the commissioners have issued Order No. 65, directing that the amendment be adopted, and that the railroads place same in effect February 1st.

What the Order Covers.

This order covers agricultural implements, blinds, doors and frames, earthenware, sash and skylight frames, stoves and ranges, in carloads. The reductions, which will prove interesing reading, are as follows: Agricultural implements, from 25 cents to 16 cents per hundred pounds; sash, doors and blinds, from 25 cents to 10 cents per hundred; earthenware, from 32 cents to 18 cents per hundred; sash and skylight frames, from 25 cents to 10 cents per hundred; stoves and hollow ware, from 32 cents to 12 and a fourth cents per hundred.

Merely a Forestep.

While the amendment covers only these articles, it is merely a forestep to what will follow, and it is calculated that this action of the commission will be worth millions of dollars to the cities of interior Florida.

Mrs. Fannie Dell Buys the Handsome Lartigue Home, East Gainesville.

His professional duties call him out at all hours, and he feels that a more central location would prove more convenient.

J. R. Smith of Trenton, who has been in the city for the past two days, returned to his home yesterday. While here he made The Sun an agreeable call. Mr. Smith has recently acquired by lease several thousand acres of fine timber land, and proposes to go extensively into the crosstie business. The property is located on the line of the proposed extension of the Jacksonville and Southwestern railroad, and there is no doubt, with his advantages of shipment, that he will make a big success of the venture.

After a couple of weeks on his last visit spent in this city, Dr. G. Goldstein, the oculist, expects to make his departure today for Ocala. Dr. Goldstein has become so infatuated with Gainesville and its clever people that he has actually become a property owner, having purchased last week a handsome lot in North Gainesville. He is not only an excellent gentleman but a fine oculist, and many have been benefited by his visit here. The Doctor expects to make his future winter headquarters in Gainesville, hence our people may expect to see him often.

The Sun acknowledges an agreeable call yesterday from Basil McHenry, the clever general agent of Sparks' Old Virginia Shows, which will appear here on Saturday, January 21. This show, which has been a regular visitor to Florida for several years, is one of the best on the road, and is a general favorite in this section. The show this season, Mr. McHenry says, is better than ever, a great many new and costly attractions having been added. Mr. McHenry is well known in Florida, having been for many years the manager of the famous Barlow Minstrels, during which time that aggregation enjoyed an excellent reputation.

Attention is directed to the big advertisement of J. Manasse, who will run a great stock-taking sale for five days, beginning Tuesday, January 10. Mr. Manasse will show to the people of this county and section some of the finest bargains ever offered in dry goods, gents' furnishings, etc., and it would pay those contemplating purchases to call and inspect his line. The sale will include five days, from January 10 to 15, and unheard-of bargains will be offered to the public on these dates. Mr. Manasse has a large stock of goods, and these will be offered at actual New York cost. It will be an excellent opportunity for those who desire goods in his line to avail themselves of these purchases.

OFFENSIVE CATARRH

I suffered for a long time with a bad case of Catarrh, and took a great deal of medicine without any benefit.

I had a continual headache, my cheeks had grown purple, my nose was always stopped up, my breath had a sickening and disgusting odor, and I coughed incessantly.

I heard of your S. S. S. and wrote you. I commenced to use it, and after taking several bottles I was cured and have never since had the slightest symptom of the disease. MISS MARY L. STORM.
Cor. 7th & Felix Sts., St. Joseph, Mo.

Wheeling, W. Va., May 29, 1903.

I had Nasal Catarrh for years for which I used S. S. S. with very gratifying results. I tried local applications for some time, and getting no permanent relief I came to the conclusion that the seat of the trouble was in the blood. Knowing S. S. S. to be a good blood medicine I began its use, and after using it for some little while it did away entirely with the offensive mucus in the nostrils, and I did not have to hawk and spit, especially in the morning, to dislodge the catarrhal matter.
1627 South St. FRED H. PRESSY.

The filthy secretions and foul mucus that are continually dropping back into the throat, find their way into the stomach and are absorbed into the blood. Catarrh then becomes constitutional, and the only way to get rid of it is through the blood. Write us if you have Catarrh, and our physicians will advise you without charge.

WILL OPEN MONDAY,

Gainesville Graded and High School Will Begin Spring Term.

After a suspension of two weeks, the Gainesville Graded and High School will open for the spring term tomorrow, and the prospects for a successful term were never better. Prof. J. G. Kellum, the principal, anticipates a full enrollment, and being blessed with an excellent corps of efficient assistants, it may be safely said that the term will accomplish a great deal of good work.

There was an enrollment at the fall term of three hundred and sixty, which is the largest actual enrollment ever made in the school. This enrollment comprised actual pupils who attended the school regularly. From present indications the enrollment will be increased by possibly a quarter of a hundred at the spring term, as several families have recently moved here for the purpose of giving their children the advantages of the school.

The only change in the faculty for the spring term will be Mrs. C. C. Powell as assistant to the principal, who has been selected to succeed Miss Clem Hampton, Miss Hampton having resigned to accept a position as private secretary to State Superintendent Wm. M. Holloway. While the friends and patrons of the school regretted very much to lose the services of Miss Hampton, it may be said that her place has been well filled, since Mrs. Powell is said to be an excellent teacher, holding fine recommendations from the schools in which she has been employed.

Pleasant and Most Effective.

T. J. Chambers, Editor Vindicator, Liberty, Texas, writes Dec. 25, 1902: "With pleasure and unsolicited by you, I bear testimony to the curative power of Ballard's Horehound Syrup. I have used it in my family and can cheerfully affirm it is the most effective and pleasantest remedy for coughs and colds I have ever used." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

MEETING MELON GROWERS.

Association Elected Same Officers for Ensuing Year.

An interesting and well-attended meeting of the Gainesville Melon Growers' Association was held in the offices of the S. J. Thomas Company Saturday afternoon, at which the old officers were re-elected as follows:

C. A. Colclough, president; J. D. Stringfellow, vice-president; F. D. Warner, manager, secretary and treasurer.

A general review of the past year's work proved satisfactory, and the growers were perfectly satisfied with the result. It was decided to continue shipments to the same commission houses which handled the association products last year.

P. M. Colson was elected a member of the association.

Discover More Double Stars.

Berkeley, Cal., Jan. 7.—More double stars have been discovered and measured at the Lick observatory. The latest bulletins issued by the university contains a fact of another hundred new double stars discovered and measured there. These new double stars are of the same character as those previously discovered at the Lick observatory. The distance between the two components in most of them is very small, and nearly all would be difficult objects to observe under conditions less favorable than at Mount Hamilton.

Attempt to Wreck Express.

Wheeling, W. Va., Jan. 7.—At Underwood, a small station 30 miles east of here, an attempt was made today to wreck the fast New York and Chicago Express on the Baltimore and Ohio road. A heavy iron bar was driven in the switch to such a depth that it required 20 minutes to remove it. Had the train crashed through at its regular rate of speed it would have rolled over the mountain side.

Building Many Box Cars.

Waycross, Ga., Jan. 7.—The South Atlantic Car and Manufacturing company have commenced work on an order of a number of flat cars for saw mills in this section. The car works are busily engaged in preparing the material for the order of 500 box cars from the Central road, and it is expected that 400 workmen will be engaged on this order before the end of the month.

Tobacco Smugglers Captured.

Winnipeg, Man., Jan. 7.—Several Americans have been captured smuggling tobacco into Canada in the Rainy river district. The internal revenue department here is working on the case and prosecutions will follow. The tobacco and cigars were seized.

Nan Patterson Refused Bail.

New York, Jan. 7.—Justice Greenbaum, of the New York state supreme court today denied the application of Nan Patterson for bail pending a new trial on the charge of the murder of Caesar Young.

Imperfect Digestion

Means less nutrition and in consequence less vitality. When the liver fails to secrete bile, the blood becomes loaded with bilious properties, the digestion becomes impaired and the bowels constipated. Herbine will rectify this; it gives tone to the stomach, liver and kidneys, strengthens the appetite, clears and improves the complexion, infuses new life and vigor to the whole system. 50 cents a bottle. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Women Stone Tobacco Factory.

New York, Jan. 7.—Women to the number of 600 employed in a tobacco factory at Fricase, have struck for increased pay, says a Herald dispatch from Milan. They bombarded the factory with stones. The prefect of the province of Milan, advised by telephone, sent a company of infantry to suppress the disturbances. In the collision eight soldiers were wounded. Many women were arrested.

Lawyer Estes Found Dead.

Gainesville, Ga., Jan. 7.—Hubert Estes, son of Claud Estes, of Macon, was found dead here last night. He was a well-known lawyer, and was an orator of great ability. The funeral occurs at 11 o'clock Friday morning from the Presbyterian church.

Go to Jail for Contempt.

Denver, Colo., Jan. 7.—At 11 o'clock court today passed sentence in the contempt cases of Patrick Higgins, W. W. Dague, George Kern and James W. Campbell, who were charged with interference in the recent election in precinct 7 of the fifth ward. Higgins was sentenced to four months in the county jail, and the other three defendants were given three months each.

HAIR TELLS CHARACTER.

Color of Hair Said to Indicate a Person's Temperament.

Many people believe that blonde, or light hair denotes affection and dark hair constancy. A person without hair is not devoid of character, far from it. The disposition of the average bald-headed man is to show such solicitude for the welfare of others, that he neglects himself. A germ causes baldness, Prof. Sabouraud, of Paris, France, inoculated a rabbit with Dandruff germs, causing it to become totally bald in five weeks' time. To rid the scalp of these dangerous germs it is necessary to apply Newbro's Herpicide.

"Destroy the cause—you remove the effect."

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

JAPS' WRESTLING MATCH.

In view of the great war in the Far East, upon which the eyes of the world have rested for many months, the following, taken from a recent issue of The New York Times, will prove of interest to readers of The Sun. It goes to prove the wonderful alacrity of the little Oriental people, who are among the leaders of the world not only in athletic sports, but in fighting qualities, determination and loyalty:

Higashi, a Japanese who weighs just 120 pounds and is only 5 feet 3 inches in height, appeared at police headquarters yesterday, at the request of Commissioner McAdoo, to show the police the value of the wiles and tricks of jiu-jitsu, or Japanese wrestling. The two policemen Higashi met were "Ajax" Whitman, the bicycle policeman, who weighs 200 pounds, and Chas. Kammer, who stands 5 feet 11 inches in his stocking feet, weighs more than 200 pounds, and once held the National championship as middleweight boxer.

The commissioner himself was prevented by indisposition from attending. But his secretary and Chief Inspector Cortright were there, as were five policemen holding records as athletes.

The spacious trial room had been cleared for the occasion. Its floor was covered with thick layers of soft rugs. At one end stood the policemen. On the middle of the floor waited the little Jap. He looked as if any one of the five might make a single mouthful of him. His dress was that of the ordinary citizen, including collar and cuffs. When asked if he were not going to undress for the trial, he shook his head smilingly. Then at a nod from the Chief Inspector, Ajax stepped forward, having previously stripped off coat and vest.

"I am afraid of hurting the chap," he remarked casually as he approached his antagonist. And again the Jap merely smiled. But when he saw the policeman took an attitude as if intending to wrestle, according to Occidental methods, he spoke up:

"You had better not resist, or I may hurt you."

"Aw, come off," was the retort, accompanied with a contemptous laugh.

Next moment something happened. But if their lives had depended on it nobody in the room could have told just how it came about. Ajax was lying on his back flat on the floor. The Jap was standing just where he had stood before, having barely moved. Quick as a flash the big policeman was on his feet again. Higashi seemed to step sideways as if intending to get out of the way. As he did so he leaned forward slightly. There was a crossing and mingling of arms. Ajax was heard to draw a deep breath. And once more he was prostrate on the floor.

Getting up a little more carefully and slowly than the first time, the policeman held back a moment. His face was very red, and there was fire in his eyes. Apparently he was preparing for a serious effort. This time Higashi did not wait for him, but approached with short quick steps. Body met body, but the struggle lasted only a few seconds. The tall form of the policeman was seen to whirl through the air and land heavily on the rugs, back downward. On top of him was the little wrestler, holding on in some curious sort of way that prevented the man underneath from stirring, although it was plain to the observers that the latter exerted his utmost strength to free himself.

Finally Higashi sprang aside and Ajax scrambled to his feet, purple with rage.

"I'll finish that fellow yet," he cried.

"I don't want any more of him," said the Jap, turning to the chief inspector. "If he makes me wrestle in earnest with him, I'll probably break some bones—and I don't like to."

"Get back, Whitman," commanded Inspector Cortright, sharply. "This is not a wrestling match. We want to see how it is done, and not who is the best man. Kammer had better take a turn at it now."

The second champion of the force was the tallest of the lot, and by the side of him Higashi looked more insignificant than ever. He stepped goodhumoredly over to his frail opponent and began to feel his arm.

"Why," he said, "you've got no muscles at all—and such funny thin wrists you've got."

"Are you ready?" asked the Jap.

"Sure," said the policeman, grinning broadly and placing himself squarely and massively, with feet well apart, just as if he intended to foil the other's great skill by mere superiority of bulk and weight. In another moment Higashi was behind him and appeared to lift the huge form clear above his own head. Kabber landed in a heap, but apparently without suffering hurt or harm. Raising himself to a sitting position and scratching his head with one of his cumbrous fists, while hopeless, helpless surprise pictured itself on his face in the most amusing fashion, the policeman let drop from his lips an automatic:

"Well, I'll be ——!"

He was shown then by the Jap just how the trick had been achieved. Furthermore, he was instructed how to guard against a repetition of it. Yet the result was the same. More than a dozen times did slender Higashi throw his overtowering opponent, using different holds each time and always accomplishing his end without any seeming employment of strength.

Inspector Cortright finally declared he had seen enough and praised the Jap in the highest terms.

"It isn't marvelous at all," replied Higashi modestly. "Any policeman in my country could do just as well. They are bigger or stronger than I, but they are all trained in jiu-jitsu."

It is expected that the members of the force will soon be practicing in their respective station houses. Whether their training will be effected without breaking of bones remains to be seen. That tempers will be badly strained may be taken for granted.

Since moving into its new home, Live Oak, The Florida Christian Advocate has improved in appearance wonderfully. Sherwood & Pound are now the publishers, Rev. J. B. Ley having been retained as editor. Typographically The Advocate is a gem, and its last issue was filled with the choicest reading matter.

Which is the happier, a man with seven daughters, or a man with $10,000,000? The man with seven daughters, for he has all he wants, and the man with $10,000,000 wants more.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

KIDNEYS.

The inventor of the famous "TERRELL SCRAPE," a man known wherever plows are sold and used, says:

"I have used MOZLEY'S LEMON ELIXIR for 10 or 12 years in my family for the stomach, liver and kidneys, and find it is the best medicine I have ever used. It is also a sure specific for pain in the back or under the shoulders. I have recommended it in numerous cases to my workmen, when sick and unable to work, and it has always given perfect satisfaction. H. D. TERRELL, President Atlanta Plow Co., Atlanta."

ARMSTRONG-CAMP NUPTIALS.

It Was One of Swellest Social Functions Ever Seen in Ocala.

For the information of the numerous friends of the bride, who is well known throughout this entire section, having formerly resided at Albion and spent a great deal of her time here, The Sun publishes the following report of the wedding of George F. Armstrong and Miss Lucy Camp, which appeared in The Times-Union under the head of Ocala news:

The marriage of Miss Lucy Camp, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. W. N. Camp of this city, and Mr. George Fergurson Armstrong of Savannah, Ga., was beautifully solemnized at 10:30 o'clock Wednesday morning at the First Baptist Church of this city in the presence of a large number of invited friends.

The church was simply and beautifully decorated in white and green. Four large white pillars, trimmed with smilax formed the principal decorations. Suspended from the center of these pillars was a large wedding bell of green maidenhair ferns and smilax ornamented with a large white bow of satin ribbon, and under the bell Miss Camp and Mr. Armstrong plighted their troth, Rev. L. B. Warren pronouncing them man and wife.

Mr. Leon Fishel rendered a short musical program before the service, and to the strains of the Lohengren wedding march the bridal party entered the church.

First came the ushers in the following order: Mr. Geo. Camp of White Springs, Fla.; Mr. Robt. Camp and Mr. Ryland Camp of Franklin, Va. Next entered the bridesmaids. First came Miss Annie Nurney, followed by Miss Jessie Nurney of Suffork, Va.; Miss Pallie Dekle of Marianna, Fla.; then entered and following her came Miss May Camp of Franklin, Va., the matron of honor; Mrs. Clifton Camp, nee Miss Rebecca Anderson, came next, followed by the maid of honor, Miss Sallie Camp, sister of the bride. After them came Miss Lete Camp, the youngest sister of the bride, and Miss Carita Doggett of Jacksonville, Fla., as flower girls.

The beautiful bride entered last with her father, Colonel W. N. Camp. She wore a very exquisite gown of Dutchess satin with trimmings of real lace, wearing a long tulle veil and carried white brides' roses. The groom entered from the vestry with his best man, Mr. F. B. Strachan of Savannah, Ga. The bridesmaids' gowns were exceedingly beautiful and were built of white crepe de chine. They wore white picture hats with plumes, and carried lovely bouquets of Palma violets tied with purple satin ribbons. The matron of honor wore her wedding gown of white liberty silk with Dutchess lace trimmings, with a white lace hat. The maid of honor wore a lovely gown of pink crepe de chine, a pink picture hat with long pink plume, and carried pink roses.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Camp.

The home was beautifully and profusely decorated with palms and bamboo, and the table was lovely in white and pink.

In the center of the table was a beautiful wedding cake ornamented with a large bouquet of white brides' roses tied with pink ribbon, the entire confection being made of spun glass candy. At either end of the table were tall crystal vases filled with pink and white roses. The place cards were done in handpainted pink rose buds, and the pink and white rosebud scheme was carried out in several of the courses of the breakfast.

Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong left over the 1 o'clock Seaboard train for Cuba, via Tampa. They will return by way of the East Coast, visiting Miami, Palm Beach and other famous winter resorts.

After February 1 they will be at home at the De Soto Hotel, Savannah, Ga.

Cuba.

For bargains in real estate lands in the different parts and provinces in Cuba, it will be well to see J. R. Smith of Trenton, Fla., who is in a position to make it to your interest, and can secure special reduced rates to and from the steamship transportation companies and on the Cuban Western railroad for prospecting or immigrating purposes. dltw3t

SWIFT JUSTICE METED NEGRO.

Working on Chain Chaingang Four Hours After Robbery.

Athens, Ga., Jan. 7.—Thursday morning at 5 o'clock John Henry Redden, a negro boy, stole a pistol and $6 from W. F. Black, a farmer, living a few miles from the city. At 1 o'clock this afternoon the negro was at work in the county chaingang. This establishes a record for swift trials.

A man on Mr. Black's place followed the negro to the city and arrested him at the Seaboard Air Line depot at 7 o'clock.

At 9 o'clock the negro was tried before Judge Foster and committed to the city court on two warrants charging him with carrying concealed weapons and with larceny. At 1 o'clock he was tried by Judge Cobb and adjudged guilty, being sentenced to one year in the chaingang in each instance and at 1 o'clock went to work serving out his sentence.

The stolen property was found on his person and he entered a plea of guilty.

Do Not Suppress a Cough.

When you have a cough do not try to suppress it, but remove the cause. The cough is only a symptom of some disease, and that disease is what you should cure, then the cough will stop of itself. The most common cause of coughing is a cold. Anodynes will promptly suppress the cough, and preparations containing chloroform, opium, etc., are used for that purpose, but they do not cure the cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy on the other hand does not suppress the cough, but relieves it by removing from the throat and lungs the mucus which obstructed the breathing and allaying the irritation and tickling in the throat. It also opens the secretions and effectually and permanently cures the cold as well as the cough. For sale by all druggists.

WILD CAR STRIKES TRAIN.

Several Passengers Were Among the Slightly Injured.

Atlanta, Jan. 7.—A wildcat coal car collided with a passenger train on the Southern railroad near Armour, 5 miles from the city, Wednesday night about 10 o'clock, and several passengers were slightly injured, but none of them seriously. J. C. Whidden, a flagman, who was on the coal car when the accident occurred, was arrested by the police and was arraigned in the recorder's court. Whidden was said to have been drinking at the time.

It was train No. 11, from Charlotte to Atlanta, which was struck by the coal car. When the car broke loose from the freight train it started down grade, and the farther it rolled the faster it went. Whidden was said to have been on the car, and instead of trying to put on the brake he remained idle until he decided to jump off. He was slightly bruised from his fall.

A Grim Tragedy

Is daily enacted in thousands of homes, as death claims, in each one, another victim of consumption or pneumonia. But when coughs and colds are properly treated, the tragedy is averted. F. G. Huntley of Oaklandon, Ind., writes: "My wife had the consumption, three doctors gave her up. Finally she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, coughs and colds, which cured her, and today she is well and strong." It kills the germs of all diseases. One dose relieves. Guaranteed at 50c and $1.00 by all druggists. Trial bottles free.

Negro's House Dynamited.

Nashville, Jan. 7.—Near Petersburg, Tenn., dynamite was exploded under the house of Poe Short, a prominent negro man, and half the structure completely wrecked. One of Short's sons was fatally injured. There is no clew to the perpetrators. The Shorts are very wealthy negroes, having been left a portion of the estate of their former owners many years ago.

Governor Douglas Inaugurated.

Boston, Jan. 7.—William T. Douglas, of Brockton, was inaugurated governor of Massachusetts Thursday. He is the fourth Democrat to hold that office within the past 56 years. All the other state officers are Republicans, and the legislature is heavily Republican. Not since Governor Russell's last inauguration in 1893, has there been such a gathering of Democratic leaders at the state house.

Found a Cure for Indigestion.

I use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for indigestion and find that they suit my case better than any dyspepsia remedy I have ever tried and I have used many different remedies. I am nearly fifty-one years of age and have suffered a great deal from indigestion. I can eat almost anything I want to now.—Geo. W. Ensey, Rock Mills, Ala. For sale by all druggists.

Rescued Crew Reaches Port.

New York, Jan. 7.—Six men of the crew of the little Lockport, N. S., schooner Julia H. Archer, were brought here today on board the steamer Prinz Adalbert, having abandoned their vessel on Christmas day, after a terrible two weeks' experience in a prolonged winter gale. They were rescued in their sinking craft by the German steamer Nbia, bound from New York for the Orient and were transferred to the Prinz Adalbert a week ago. All members of the ship wrecked crew apparently had recovered from their hard experience when they arrived here today.

Rev. Carlisle P. B. Martin, L. L. D.,

Of Waverley, Texas, writes: "Of a morning, when first arising, I often find a troublesome collection of phlegm, which produces a cough, and is very hard to dislodge; but a small quantity of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will at once dislodge it, and the trouble is over. I know of no medicine that is equal to it, and it is so pleasant to take. I can most cordially recommend it to all persons needing a medicine for throat or lung trouble." 25, 50c and $1.00. Ripley, Tenn., June 1, 1901.

Dr. E. W. Hall, St. Louis Mo.—Dear Sir: Having tried various remedies without satisfactory results, I was persuaded to give your "Texas Wonder" a trial. I have used one bottle, and although my case is one of long standing that baffled the skill of the best physician, yet it yielded at once to "The Texas Wonder," which I heartily recommend to all suffering from kidney and bladder troubles.

Yours truly,
W. H. BRUTON,
Pastor Baptist Church, Ripley, Tenn.

A TEXAS WONDER.

One small bottle of the Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, cures all kidney and bladder troubles, removes gravel, cures diabetes, seminal emissions, weak and lame backs, rheumatism and all irregularities of the kidneys and bladder in both men and women, regulates bladder troubles in children. If not sold by your druggist, will be sent by mail on receipt of $1. One small bottle is two months' treatment and seldom fails to perfect a cure. Dr. Ernest W. Hall, sole manufacturer, P. O. box 329, St. Louis, Mo. Send for testimonials. Sold by all druggists.
